The Declaration of Covenants requires that you submit to the Architectural Review Board for Approval of all proposed exterior additions, changes or alterations to your house and lot. In order to be considered by the Architectural Review Board, your application must include detailed information describing the proposed change (typically, plans and specifications including sketches, photos, catalog illustrations, etc. showing the nature, kind, shape, color, dimensions, and materials; and a copy of the survey with the location marked). Make sure your application is complete. An application submitted without all required submissions will be considered incomplete. In such case, the Architectural Review Board's review period will not commence until all required submissions have been provided. Other exhibits may be requested to permit adequate evaluation of the proposed change. If you have any questions regarding the required submissions or the application process, you are advised to seek guidance from First Service Residential On-site office prior to submission of an application.

Describe all proposed improvements, alterations or changes to your lot or home.
