PERSONAL

I grew up in a military family which gave me the opportunity to travel the world and experience diverse cultures other than my own. I attended Virginia Tech (Go Hokies!) and received degrees in Biology and Biochemistry. I met my husband in Northern Virginia, and we moved to Sully Station II in 2018. We have two boys and are expecting our third baby in September. I enjoy clean living, cooking, gardening, music and being a stay-at-home mom.

PROFESSIONAL

My first job after graduate school was business development/government contracting for the Biosciences division of an architectural and engineering company. Since then, I have served in various roles within the laboratory and life sciences industry, functioning as a Proposal Manager, Program Manager, Director of Operations, and a Biosafety/Biosecurity/Risk Strategist Consultant. I found a niche in business strategy, and currently serve (part-time) as the Director of Operations and Business Strategy for a biorisk consulting company.
